

The Tennessee Education Lottery's core mission is to generate funds to support specific education programs, and we are committed to doing so in a socially responsible manner. The Lottery has incorporated responsible gaming practices within our business model and adopted industry-recognized best practices.

While the Lottery is designed to be an affordable form of entertainment, we remind players through a variety of mechanisms: Have Fun. Play Responsibly.

If you or someone you know has a gambling problem, there are a variety of resources for assistance:

The Tennessee REDLINE: 800-889-9789 The REDLINE is an information and referral line coordinated by the Tennessee Association of Alcohol, Drug & Other Addiction Services (TAADAS) and funded by the Tennessee Department of Mental Health Substance Abuse Services. Visit taadas.org for more information.

NCPG National Council on Problem Gambling: 800-522-4700
Call or text a helpline specialist from this national organization at 800-522-4700
OR chat online with a specialist at ncpgambling.org.

With its commitment to responsible gaming practices, the Tennessee Education Lottery has been awarded a "Level 3 Certification" by the World Lottery Association (WLA) as part of its Responsible Gaming Framework.

According to the organization, "This level signifies that the Tennessee Education Lottery Corporation has established the relevant resources needed as well as developed a plan and timeline necessary to implement the specific Responsible Gaming elements." The Tennessee Lottery is one of seven U.S. lotteries to have attained Level 3 Certification.
