

The Tennessee Education Lottery's core mission is to generate funds to support specific education programs, and we are committed to doing so in a socially responsible manner. The Lottery has incorporated responsible gaming practices within our business model and adopted industry-recognized best practices.

While the Lottery is designed to be an affordable form of entertainment, we remind players through a variety of mechanisms: Have Fun. Play Responsibly.

If you or someone you know has a gambling problem, there are a variety of resources for assistance:

	The Tennessee REDLINE: Call/Text: 800-889-9789 Visit: taadas.org The REDLINE is a 24/7 hotline that connects Tennessee residents with addiction and recovery services. This resource is coordinated by the Tennessee Association of Alcohol, Drug & Other Addiction Services (TAADAS).

With its commitment to responsible gaming practices, the Tennessee Education Lottery has been awarded a prestigious "Level 4 Certification" by the World Lottery Association (WLA). Level 4 is the highest level of Responsible Gaming Certification from this global organization. As of 2022, the Tennessee Lottery was one of only eight U.S. lotteries at this top level.

The TEL also maintains the highest level of Responsible Gaming verification from the North American Association of State and Provincial Lotteries and the National Council on Problem Gambling.
